Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a student member of the American Society for Enology and Viticulture.

Student membership in the Society is available to any undergraduate or graduate student at an accredited institution of higher learning who is currently enrolled: (a) as a full-time student, and (b) in an enology or viticulture DEGREE program or a closely related scientific field of study. Certificate program enrollees are not eligible for Student Membership. Closely related scientific fields of study are deemed to be those with academic programs inclusive of enology or viticulture related coursework and research (for graduate studies). Please note that if we are not familiar with your particular academic program then we may need your assistance in obtaining additional information. Employment is not a criteria for student membership.

Your student membership benefits are based on the calendar year (January–December) and will include:

- Annual online subscription to the quarterly American Journal of Enology and Viticulture (AJEV), including online access to full AJEV archives from 1950, and an online subscription to Catalyst: Discovery into Practice
- Reduced rates on all other ASEV/AJEV publications
- Significantly reduced membership registration rates to the National Conference, Unified Wine & Grape Symposium and other ASEV sponsored events for each year of membership
- ASEV Technical Update—practical research articles (sent by email and archived online)
- Access to the online (searchable) ASEV Membership/Affiliate Directory

Student members may purchase individual current copies of our printed quarterly journal, AJEV, for $20 each.

If your application is received on or after October 1, your membership will be activated for the next calendar year unless you request otherwise on the application. You must be a current member during the calendar year of any ASEV-hosted event to benefit from reduced registration rates. Online access to AJEV will become active on January 1. If you opt for membership at this point in the current year, you will be sent an invoice for the upcoming year dues.

If you need additional information on the Society, please visit www.asev.org or contact our office.

Sincerely,

American Society for Enology and Viticulture

ACADEMIC ADVISOR’S VERIFICATION:

I verify that this student is enrolled full-time in a qualified degree program as stated in the instructions and as indicated above. Part-time enrollment does not qualify for student membership, and certificate programs do not qualify.
MEMBERSHIP DUES

The current year annual dues rates are on the rate schedule below*. ASEV Membership and the corresponding dues are based on a calendar year. All fees must accompany the application for membership. Refunds will not be issued. Payment is to be made only in U.S. dollars and must be through a U.S. bank or correspondent within the U.S. Payment may be made by check, money order or by credit card (American Express, MasterCard, or VISA). Bank checks must have complete numeric coding to avoid collection fees.

Student membership includes an annual online subscription to the American Journal of Enology and Viticulture (AJEV).

* Dues will be applied to the next calendar year for applications received on or after October 1. Check here □ if you wish to have your dues applied to the PRESENT calendar year.

ASEV PRIVACY POLICY
The following use of contact information is a condition of ASEV membership: All current ASEV members are listed in the online membership directory. The directory is not available for sale. ASEV provides the contact information for each member to ASEV contractors such as for registration, newsletters, and other distributions to members for postal and/or electronic mailings as stipulated by ASEV.
