

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Apply online at www.asev.org

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the American Society for Enology and Viticulture.

Professional membership in the American Society for Enology and Viticulture is available to Individuals who are interested in any aspect of viticulture and enology, and who also support ASEV's objectives.

Your membership benefits are based on the calendar year (January–December) and will include:

- Annual subscription (online only or online and printed copy) to the quarterly American Journal of Enology and Viticulture (AJEV), including online access to full AJEV archives from 1950, and an online subscription to the Catalyst: Discovery into Practice
- Reduced rates on all other ASEV/AJEV publications
- Reduced membership registration rates to the National Conference, Unified Wine & Grape Symposium and other ASEV sponsored events
- ASEV Technical Update—practical research articles (sent by email and archived online)
- Access to the online (searchable) ASEV Membership/Affiliate Directory
- No page fees for published Journal articles (10 pages or less)
- Certificate of membership

Professional members may add a print copy of our quarterly Journal to their annual membership for a nominal fee.

If your application is received on or after October 1, your membership will be effective for the next calendar year unless you request otherwise on the application. You must be a current member during the calendar year of any ASEV-hosted event to benefit from reduced registration rates. Online access to AJEV will become active on January 1. If you opt for membership at this point in the current year, you will be sent an invoice for the upcoming year dues.

If you need additional information on the Society, please visit www.asev.org or contact our office.

Sincerely,

American Society for Enology and Viticulture
